

We pay for these services, therefore access should not be denied any services or programming that Satellite Radio presently offers. The FCC should reject the NAC's petition 104-60 and support XM Radio programming and services.